Consignor does hereby deliver to Consignee on consignment the hereinafter set forth merchandise for the period of 90 days on the following conditions:

1. The selling price of the consigned merchandise is to be fixed by Second Act, Inc., Consignee;
2. All clothing and consigned merchandise must be freshly laundered or dry cleaned and in good style and condition;
3. Second Act, Inc., Consignee, reserves the right to reject any and all merchandise deemed unsuitable for resale by it;
4. Consigned merchandise unsold at the end of 30 days may be reduced in selling price to a price to be fixed by Second Act, Inc., Consignee;
5. Consigned merchandise unsold at the end of 90 days becomes the property of Second Act, Inc., Consignee, if not repossessed by Consignor at that time and Consignor specifically waives any and all rights and claims to payment therefore;
6. Second Act, Inc. Consignee, is not, and shall not be, responsible for any damage to or any loss of consigned merchandise caused by fire, theft or otherwise;
7. Second Act, Inc., Consignee, shall receive 50% of the selling price as its commission;
8. Payment for merchandise sold by Consignee will be made after first deducting Consignee's commission of 50% of the sale price.

The merchandise consigned to Second Act, Inc., is as follows:

The inventory list of consigned merchandise is available to the consignor by e-Mail, to the e-Mail address provided by the consignor, as an addendum to this contract. The consignor must notify Second Act, Inc. of any discrepancies noted in the inventory list addendum e-Mail, within 24 hours after the date of the e-Mail. A printed inventory list of consigned merchandise can be obtained, as an addendum to this contract, at the time of consignment if a consignor e-Mail address is not available.

This contract/agreement contains the entire agreement between the parties, there being no statements, promises, agreements or understanding, verbal or written except as herein set forth.
